ATTENTION SLATE BELT RESIDENTS Green Knights, Synagro, Waste Management

As a person whose family has lived in Pen Argyl their entire lives, I must speak to you in reference to the Green Knight Economic Development Corporation letter dated April 28, 2017, which appeared recently in the Express-Times.

Personally, I do not discredit the work of this group. They have accomplished a lot for our community and deserve credit for the time and effort they have devoted to these positive projects.

My question and concern is addressing the Board's letter that states: "they have conducted significant research and due diligence into this particular use and potential impacts to our community, and they also believe that the representatives of Synagro have been extremely open and forthright with our community about the nature of the facility." (Heat Recovery Center)

I have no confidence in these statements. Waste Management is clearly behind the Synagro deal and pushing hard on the directors to be in favor of it. It is all about money. It's the business they are both in (Waste Management and Synagro). They are salesmen for their cause and paid well to accomplish them, which is business, in the real world whether we like it or not. Maybe the recent resignation of two Board members of the Green Knight Economic Development Corporation reflects my "no confidence" as well.

The treatment of sludge is complicated. Sludge from a community such as Pen Argyl Borough is one type. Now compare that to an urban city with various medical, commercial, and industrial businesses operating which contribute all types of materials to be treated in the sludge process. Obviously, it is much more difficult to filter and far beyond my capability to explain.

Now, let's recognize what the Green Knight Economic Development Corporation Board members are up against, in all fairness to them:

- Heavy pressure for pushing Synagro to the public as a benefit when it is another extension of service to the landfill we already have. We don't need an additional extension of waste services in our community.
- Part-time Board members receiving no salary with no expertise in what they are being sold on, up against, highly paid full-time professional sales and marketing staff with their full focus on getting this approved.
- Meetings held in private where Waste Management and Synagro representatives are part of the "due diligence" and significant research without public attendance is where my confidence in the Board's decision-making is questionable.
- Again, two Board members with strong ties to our community have recently resigned.

I believe that the meeting being held with Synagro, at the Plainfield Township Planning Commission meeting, on June 12, 2017 (if it isn't rescheduled again), will be where the "Real Due Diligence" is accomplished to find the solid information and the facts the entire community deserves.

Yes, the Green Knight Economic Development Corporation have completed various projects that are beneficial to our community and we are proud of their accomplishments. My brother, Neil, and I worked with them through Carlton Snyder and the rest of the YMCA Building Committee who gave their time to accomplish the goal of building the YMCA for our Slate Belt community. This was the final result of years of work and time started with Judge Leonard Zito (then Attorney Zito's) reference to us, "If you want to build a YMCA, call Harry Smith. He knows Frank Frey, a YMCA lifetime representative who is Harry Smith's neighbor." We met at Detzi's for lunch and four to five years later, Neil and I personally donated the property and building for the YMCA, the Green Knight Economic Development Corporation then brought on their contribution to match the state's grant. Today, the YMCA serves our Slate Belt community like the parks our ancestors gave us 100+ years ago.

We encourage the Green Knight Economic Development Corporation to continue to find more beneficial projects for our community, but not Synagro which would have a negative impact for future beneficial businesses. We don't want to sell our souls to the devil for a "few stinking bucks."

Please show up at the June 12th meeting and you will see all of the reasons why we don't need this in our community.

Sincerely,
Tighe Scott & Neil Scott

The Real Estate Guys
Who represents you in a real estate transaction?

Whether you are Selling or Buying a home when you hire a real estate agent it is important to know who they represent.

Before you list your property for sale or enter into an agreement to buy a property, your Realtor will provide you with a "Consumer Notice". This is not a formal contract but an explanation of services designed to enable you to understand the business relationship that you will have with your agent.

As a Sellers Agent...the licensee and his company work exclusively for the Seller and must work in the Sellers best interest. All confidential information relayed by the Seller must be kept confidential.

A Buyer's Agent...does the opposite. He will work exclusively for the Buyer. Even though his fee is paid by the Seller. He will act in the Buyer's best interest.

Dual Agency...The licensee works for both the Seller and the Buyer. A Dual Agent must not take any action that is adverse or detrimental to either party. A licensee must have written consent from both parties before acting as a Dual Agent.

A Transaction licensee...provides real estate services without having any agency relationship with either party.

Another type of agency is the Designated Agent. This is too complicated to explain within the confines of this column. Feel free to stop out if you would like this explained.

In addition to Real Estate related representation, it is always prudent to have an Attorney, knowledgeable in real estate, to represent your legal interests.

Ask Jim:

What is the SLATE BELT HEAT RECOVERY CENTER PROJECT?

Since its formation in 2000, it has always been Green Knight Economic Development Corporation's ("GKEDC" or "Green Knights") intention to find a user for the valuable waste heat created by the ENERGY CENTER's turbines. The Slate Belt Heat Recovery Center is a sustainable, green energy project that will use the waste heat to convert biosolids into a safe, recycled product that can be used by consumers for renewable energy and organic fertilizers.

WHERE WILL THE MATERIAL COME FROM AND HOW WILL YOU KNOW IT IS SAFE FOR USE AS A FUEL AND FERTILIZER?

The material the center will process will come from municipal wastewater treatment plants in Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey. Federal regulations require industrial and commercial wastewater system users to pretreat their wastewater prior to sending it to a municipal treatment plant. This assures that the biosolids produced by municipal wastewater treatment plants is acceptable for use as fertilizer or fuel.

The use of biosolids as fertilizers and fuel has been happening for several decades and has been widely studied by universities across the United States. Hundreds of scientific studies have shown that proper biosolids treatment and recycling is a safe and natural way to clean our water, improve our soils and reduce our waste.

To learn more about this sustainable, green energy project, please call, visit our website or our Facebook page.

Teaching People How to Eat Better For Less

A Clean Slate, Bangor's Own Recovery Center, is proud to partner with Penn State to bring a successful program to our community. Penn State Extension in Northampton County is offering hands-on educational classes on nutrition through its Nutrition Links program. The program is designed to help families and individuals with low incomes stretch their food dollars to achieve a healthy diet. Nutrition Links staff teaches families with young children, older adults and youth through a variety of program styles. The Nutrition Links' adult series offers topics such as food preparation, meal planning, food storage and sanitation, shopping skills, nutrition for family members and managing a healthy weight. The program is taught in small groups, led by a nutrition education adviser, who is part of the Northampton County Extension staff. Sessions, which are free of charge, will be held at a Clean Slate at 100 S. 1st Street, Bangor, PA.

Nutrition Links, which is funded by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and administered by Penn State Cooperative Extension, does not supply free food or Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program benefits, but rather, provides participants with activities that develop the knowledge and skills to plan and prepare a healthy diet on a limited budget. Participants, due to the funding, need to have children under the age of 19. Each participant will be given free items to assist with their kitchen and grocery shopping. The last set of classes received wonderful feedback and all participants learned a lot. The classes will be held on Fridays from 10:30am-12pm and start date will depend on number of sign ups. Please call to sign up for the classes and leave a message for Meshell at 610-452-9348.

12th Annual Vettes for Vets Car, Truck, and Motorcycle Show

The Slate Belt Corvette Club will hold their annual show on Sunday, June 11th, on the grounds of the Blue Valley Farm Show in Bangor from 9:00am to 3:00pm. This year's show will include 24 classes. The entrants will have a chance to win one of 72 awards as well as, 4 specialty awards: Best Paint, Best Engine, Best Interior, and Best of Show. Voting is done by participant ballots.

Through our car shows we have been able to raise over $50,000 in the past 11 years, which has been donated to local military organizations. The number of entrants has increased from 75 in 2005 to 310 in 2016. Without the continued support of our many sponsors the show would not be able to continue each year. The major sponsors include Wind Gap Chevrolet, Sabatino Insurance Agency, Merchants Bank, The Motor Co., Beck's Land & Sea House as well as many local businesses. This show takes a lot of time and effort from our members, but it's very rewarding helping out those in need! This show has become the premier show of the Lehigh Valley and Poconos!

At this year's show, there will be a Chinese Auction and 50/50 tickets for purchase. Food will be available for purchase from the Exchange club featuring breakfast and lunch items. The DJ will be 1960's Allentown radio personality Jerry Deane. Vendors will be on site selling their crafts.

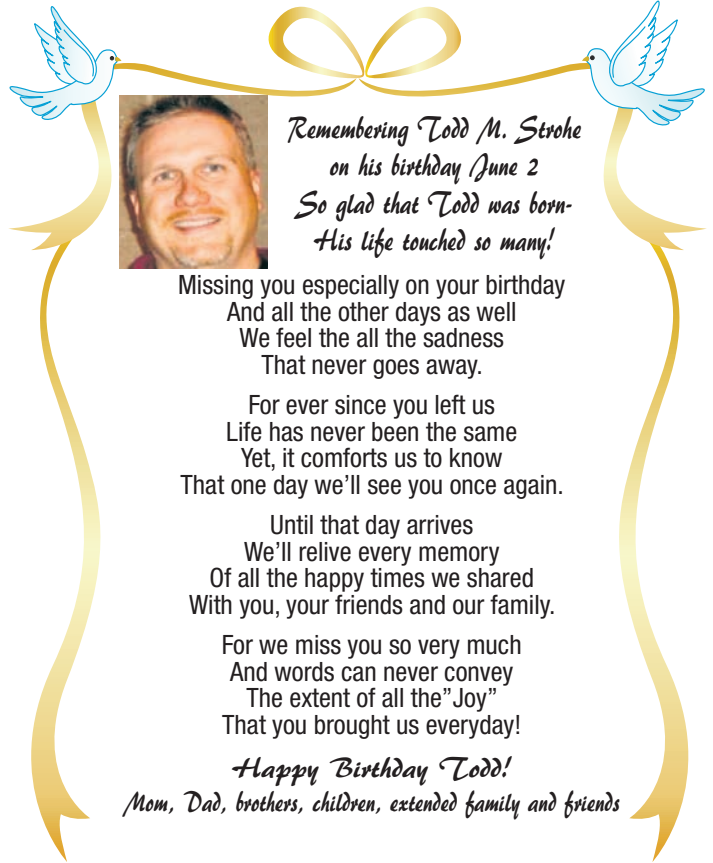

The Vietnam Veterans of America is the charity of choice for the Slate Belt Corvette Club. It was founded in 1978 and is the only national Vietnam Veterans organization congressionally chartered and exclusively dedicated to Vietnam era veterans and their families. V.V.A. is organized as a not-for-profit corporation and is tax exempt under 501(c)(19) of the Internal Revenue Service Code.

The Slate Belt Corvette Club is proud to donate all the proceeds from our VETTES FOR VETS CAR SHOW to this wonderful organization! Our proceeds will be split between the Lehigh Valley and Pocono Chapters!

Both of these organizations will be attending as well as the Lehigh Valley Nam Knights motorcycle club! The Veterans Mobile Service Van from Indiantown Gap will be on the grounds providing information to our veterans.

The Slate Belt Corvette Club has been in existence for 13 years. We have cars ranging in age from 1953 to 2016. We enjoy attending other club's events which include cruises and shows. The purpose of the club, as any club, is to enjoy each others company and raise funds for charities in need. Information and pictures of our past events can be seen on the website www.slatebeltcorvetteclub.com or call 610-841-6403.

Jacobsburg Historical Society (JHS) is very excited to host our second World War II Living History Weekend, June 24-25, 2017. The Boulton Historic Site will be open to the public on Saturday, June 24 from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM and Sunday, June 25 from 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM for this very special living history event. There is a nominal charge for adults with free on-site parking. Children 12 and under, JHS members, active duty military and scouts are free. Bring your fathers, bring your sons, or bring your whole family!

This special WWII reenactment weekend is designed to educate the local community about the war, honor our veterans, and provide information for various non-profit veterans organizations and the services they offer. Visitors can tour Allied and German Camps staffed by reenactors, see period military and non-military vehicle displays, meet and talk to WWII veterans, and shop with vendors. The Pennsylvania Longrifle Museum, one of several historic buildings on the Boulton Historic Site, has a special exhibit of objects from and about World War II that will continue through this event. The permanent exhibit room of the Pennsylvania Longrifle Museum contains a substantial collection of original, hand-crafted Pennsylvania longrifles and items related to the making of longrifles from the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. The Longrifle Museum itself is housed in the historic Henry Homestead, which was initially a log cabin in which the workers who built Boulton in 1812 lived. The Pennsylvania Longrifle Museum will be open for tours from 12 Noon – 4:00 PM on Saturday and Sunday.

Other buildings on the Boulton Historic Site include the 1832 John Joseph Henry House, an ambitious Philadelphia townhouse built on the Bushkill Creek. Five generations of the Henry family lived in this home from 1832 to 1989, filling it with musical instruments, books, tools, paintings, furniture, and numerous other personal belongings. The most important history painting produced in colonial America, the 1756 “Death of Socrates” painted for William Henry in Lancaster, hung in this home until the Henry family donated it to the Historical Society of Pennsylvania several decades ago. The John Joseph Henry House and Summer Kitchen will be open for tours on Saturday and Sunday from 12 Noon – 4:00 PM.

Visitors can also see the Nicholas Hawk Gun Shop, an authentic, 200-year-old log cabin gun shop that was moved from its original location in Monroe County and reconstructed on the Boulton campus. Although the structure is only 12 by 15 feet, in it Nicholas Hawk built high-quality longrifles that are now considered works of art.

The Boulton Historic Site and Jacobsburg Historical Society is located at 402-403 Henry Road near Nazareth PA. Just take the Belfast exit off of Route 33 and head towards the woods. ## SBCB Scholarship Awards Recipients

The Slate Belt Chamber of Commerce Scholarship Awards Dinner was held on Thursday, May 18th at the Tuscarora Inn and Conference Center. This year the Slate Belt Chamber of Commerce was able to give each student $1000. It is the hope of the Chamber that they will be able to continue to increase this amount each year with the assistance of their fundraising efforts from the Scholarship Golf Classic held each year and the generous donations from the Daniel Paolini foundation. Congratulations to this year's scholarship award recipients.

Hello Belt and Beyond Readers....

Summer is approaching which means family time and of course tons of fresh fruit and the perfect little sweet note to go with it! I have this yummy homemade Angel Food Cake recipe that I'd love to share. Don't be intimidated by it either, I promise once you make it you'll ask yourself why you ever used that silly box mix! So first off, you will need a dozen egg whites, buy the cheapest eggs, they all whip the same! And yes, cake flour does have a substitute and it's super easy. For 1 cup of cake flour combine 1/4 cup cornstarch and 3/4 cup flour and you have cake flour! I do it all the time.

ANGEL FOOD CAKE

- 12 egg whites
- 1 1/2 cups sugar
- 1 1/2 tsp cream of tartar
- Dash of salt
- 1 cup cake flour
- 1 tsp vanilla extract

The trick to whipping egg whites is to have a super clean and oil free mixing bowl. Combine the egg whites, cream of tartar, and salt. Whip on medium speed until foamy soft peaks form and have doubled in size. It takes about 3-4 minutes for soft peaks to form. Add 3/4 cup sugar and turn the speed up to high until stiff peaks form, the egg whites should be still when you lift your beaters out. This will take about 3 minutes as well. Turn your mixer on to a lower speed and slowly add the remaining sugar, cake flour, and the vanilla extract. Beat until just combined. And viola you did it!

When it comes to pans, you can play around with it, my favorite twist to this angel food cake is to bake it on a half sheet sized pan lined with parchment paper, bake at 350 degrees for 30-33 minutes or until a toothpick inserted comes out clean. Now this is the tricky part, let the pan cool for about 5 minutes, then grab a nice clean towel and sprinkle about 1/2 cup of powdered sugar on the towel. Don't be scared, now flip the cake over on the towel and gently peel the back of the parchment paper off. Roll the Angel Food Cake towel and all by the shorter side as tight as you can, toss it in the fridge for about 30 mins. Now grab that mixer again and beat 8 oz of lightly softened cream cheese, 1 1/2 cups heavy whipping cream, and 1/2 cup of powdered sugar until smooth. Unroll the angel food cake and spread about 3/4 of the whipped icing onto the cake and sprinkle with your favorite fruits like strawberries and blueberries! You did it before so now gently roll the cake up as tight as you can don't be afraid if some fruit falls out! Top it with the remaining icing and some more fruit for decor! Slice into it and enjoy!

Barbecue Dry Rub Chicken

The sweet taste of maple infused with spicy seasoning will have your guests raving at your next cookout!

Ingredients:

- 1/4 cup granulated maple sugar
- 1 teaspoon chili powder
- 1/4 cup packed brown sugar
- 1 tablespoon paprika
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1 teaspoon lemon pepper
- 1 teaspoon black pepper
- 1 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- 2 tablespoons ground mustard
- 3-4 pounds boneless skinless chicken breasts
- 2 tablespoons onion powder
- 1 cup apple cider
- 2 teaspoons garlic powder

Directions: In a bowl mix together the spices and sugars.

Place one chicken breast at a time, into a large plastic ziplock bag. Using a meat tenderizer or rolling pin, slightly flatten the chicken breasts, making them even for cooking.

Place the chicken breasts on a large platter or into a disposable aluminum pan lined with parchment paper. Spoon over the dry rub onto both sides of each chicken breast. Use tongs to turn the breasts. Cover with plastic wrap and refrigerate for a minimum of 1 hour.

Grill on medium to high heat. Turning only once. Cook on both sides about 5-6 minutes, until the chicken is no longer pink in the center. Pour the apple cider over the chicken breasts while cooking. This will caramelize as it cooks, and help to moisten the chicken. Let the chicken rest about 5 minutes before slicing.

Secrets for Mastering the Grill

(Family Features) With warmer temperatures and sun-filled days arriving, there are few better ways to celebrate the summer season than by firing up the grill. Whether preparing a simple dinner at home or a backyard bash for a crowd, grilling is an easy way to add sear and flavor to your favorite meats and vegetables.

The perfect party, regardless of the number of guests, requires proper preparation, attention to detail and a few handy tricks around the grill to serve up delicious options for all in attendance. However, hosting a great get-together doesn't have to be complicated.

To up your grilling game this summer, try these tips from Chef Rick Bayless of Macy's Culinary Council, a national culinary authority featuring some of the nation's leading chefs.

Use the Right Tools

Aside from fuel, there are several cooking tools that are essential for grilling, including a meat thermometer, long-handled spatula and tongs, grill mitts and a grill brush. Bayless's go-to gadgets are a basket to prepare whole fish and a cast-iron grill grate to achieve marks and depth of flavor.

Get to Know the Fire

When grilling for a party, planning ahead is key, according to Bayless. It can be helpful to know the hot spots of the grill and the distance from grates to flame. Start early if roasting a larger piece of meat, while thinner cuts can be thrown on the grill after the party begins and your guests arrive.

Keep it Simple

Bayless recommends a simple menu that features tried and true flavor profiles nearly everyone loves. For appetizers, he suggests grilling vegetables and adding them to guacamole with bacon. Pair with wedges of grilled pita for dipping, which is an unexpected alternative to typical chips.

For a main entree, Bayless suggests making meat the star and serving up ribeye steaks marinated in garlic, chilies and fresh lime juice. To cap off the meal, his go-to dessert is grilled cornmeal pound cake, served warm and topped with ice cream, berries or whipped cream.

KILL WEEDS AND REPEL BUGS NATURALLY
 By Jackie Talero-Rueda, The Crunchy Mom

Warm weather brings much more than flowers, plants, and green grass. It brings pests to our plants and our body, and weeds to our garden. They are no fun and quite hard to get rid of. So lets start with the weeds. Most of us have used a very toxic weed killer mostly made up of a chemical called glyphosate. Glyphosate is the same chemical used on GMO crops because they were engineered to resist it so it can kill the weeds and not the crop. This chemical is extremely dangerous to the environment and our bodies. It has been linked to Alzheimers, Autism, and cancer to name a few. So please stop using this chemical that is in pretty much all weed killers. Instead opt for a natural homemade weedkiller that is safe for you and the environment like the one I make.

NATURAL WEED KILLER

- One gallon sprayer found at any hardware store
- 1/2 gallon of white distilled vinegar
- 1 cup of white table salt
- 1 TBS of blue dawn dish detergent

Mix all ingredients in the sprayer and fill the rest of the sprayer with water. Spray on your weeds on a hot sunny day for best results. You can also use all vinegar and no water for an extra strength version. I love this stuff! Check out my Facebook page for before and after photos.

Bugs are annoying to us because they can eat up our plants and bite and bother our skin. Most insect repellants are also toxic but you can very easily make a natural substitution at home.

CRUNCHY MOM'S BUG REPELLENT

- 2 oz Spray Bottle
- Witch Hazel
- Aloe Gel
- Essential Oils of Lemongrass, Citronella, Tea Tree, Peppermint
- Distilled Water

Fill the spray bottle halfway with witch hazel. Add a squirt of aloe gel and 5 drops of each oil. Fill the rest with distilled water and shake well. Test it in a small area of your skin to check for sensitivity. This will moisturize and even disinfect the skin. You can also apply it to your clothing if you are sensitive. Not only does this smell amazing but it will keep bugs away naturally.

Lastly I want to share with you a fruit tree spray I discovered online. I have peach and apple trees in my backyard and I always get pests that eat the leaves and fruit. This spray won't harm the trees, the environment, or our bodies with pesticides. So far so good. I want to share it with you so you can use it on your trees and plants this season.

ORGANIC TREE AND GARDEN SPRAY

- 1 gallon sprayer
- 1/4 cup blue dawn dish detergent
- 1 cup vegetable or canola oil
- 30 drops peppermint essential oil

Add all ingredients to the sprayer and then fill the rest with water. Mix well and spray all over the tree leaves and trunk. The vegetable oil suffocates small insects and larvae and prevents infestation. The soap helps coat the leaves. I spray at night or early morning every 2 weeks. I haven't used this on anything other than my fruit trees so use with caution since other plants may be more sensitive.

Enjoy!
 Jackie

2017 Senior Outstanding Senior Award Recipient Sherm LaBarre

John H. Mehler, Administrator of NCAAA, presents Sherm LaBarre the Outstanding Senior Award.

On Thursday, April 27th, Sherm LaBarre received an Outstanding Senior Award 2017, from the Northampton County Area Agency on Aging. Sherm was honored for his dedication and hard work at P.U.M.P. (Portland Upper Mt. Bethel Food Pantry) and for his involvement at the Richmond

United Methodist Church. P.U.M.P. was started in 1994 by his daughter, Sherma Godshalk. From the beginning, Sherm worked beside her and served on the board. Unfortunately, Sherma passed away from cancer in 2015. Sherma asked her father to promise that they would never close the pantry. He has dedicated himself to keeping his promise.

For a long time, it was clear that P.U.M.P. had outgrown the space where they had been from the start. Sherm and his wife, Barbara, prayed for a solution to their space problem. Last year their prayers were answered and they moved into a new space at the Portland Fire Company. With the assistance of many volunteers and donations from the community the move was made. The new location is bigger and has easier access for families to park and enter the pantry.

P.U.M.P. is open on Monday mornings and evenings for people in need to come in. The remainder of the week Sherm and his team of volunteers are busy picking up food donations from places like Second Harvest and Trader Joe's. Many of the Slate Belt Churches donate non-perishable food items and money to help. At Christmas, the children of the pantry families are asked to make wish lists and the parishioners in the area churches buy new clothing and toys for the children.

Congratulations Sherm for receiving the 2017 Outstanding Senior Award and for your dedication to P.U.M.P. and to your community!

2017 Outstanding Senior Award Recipient Shirley Cline

Shirley Cline was awarded the 2017 Outstanding Senior Award by the Advisory Council of the Northampton County Area Agency on Aging during a ceremony held April 27, 2017.

Shirley's background is to be admired, as she was a widow at a young age, with the sudden passing of her husband, leaving her with the last two of six children (ages 12 and 15) to raise. She went to college, receiving her degree in Business/Food Management at age fifty! While working she continued her education, receiving her degree in Dietary Management. She finally retired at seventy-two. But Shirley has not stopped, she is the President of the Bangor Highrise Resident Association; Mrs. Cline previously served the association as Chaplin. She is a volunteer at the Bangor Public Library and President of its "Friends" organization, Shirley is fulfilling her goal of placing books in the hands of many children. She serves as a greeter at her church on Sundays and volunteers in the kitchen once a month to assist with the Community Supper. Any definition of a full and productive life must include service to others. She completes this very active life at the age of seventy-eight years young, Shirley has eight grandchildren. Congratulations Shirley on receiving the 2017 Outstanding Senior Award!

The Rhetoric of Summer
by Jill E. Silvius

Shoulder knots hunch over endless black words in thin blue books: here's knowledge – nay, power – forged in crucibles of college classrooms.
I'm grading final exams. A shower drifts, dots the darkness outside with dollops that sink, then sizzle with warmth. The fallen liquefy the air and slice through and rinse a swirling haze of crystalline pollen.

Black marks/red lines melt under sunshine's gaze.
All is forgiven. I'm a newcomer:
I leave my dark idea forge behind and bask in the wisdom light of summer.

On The River

by Robert. Martin

When the still settles into its quiet place
And the day slows down to a peaceful pace
When the sun gets tired from its laborious day
From holding up the greens where violets lay

We come to the river when all starts to yawn
Shadows in their growing on summer’s lawn
Crimson skies dance to their artistic blazing
And poets look up with their intensive gazing

When all the rushing has rushed no more
The river turns more peaceful than before
Birds call to each other in a distinctive sound
As we drift in our boat with chatter all around

Quiet nights take us away from our bustling
When zephyrs move through a tuneful rustling
Life is an intimate union with Mother Nature
The sounds of life are a breath taking overture
On the river is where we can hear her sing
“Oh what a beautiful night”

ADOPT US - CLARICE & CLEO

CLARICE The AWSOM staff found Clarice wandering outside, scared and alone. It looked like she had never had a home, and she was so terrified she wouldn't let us get close. So our dedicated staff set out a humane trap and caught her in no time. After bringing Clarice in and getting her warm and fed, we sent her to the AWSOM Wellness Clinic to be spayed and vetted. As she recovered comfortably at the clinic a funny thing happened—in a quiet moment we realized Clarice was calmer and more approachable than a typical feral cat. With some treats, praise, and plenty of gentle patience, our staff was able to cuddle Clarice for the first time! Our hearts sang, knowing this sweet girl would someday know the love and joy of being part of a family. At 3 years young, Clarice is ready to do some catching up on her lifetime of happiness. She is spayed, up to date on shots, litter trained and waiting patiently to meet you.

Come see her today!

CLEO is a beautiful

Calico was found as a stray back in March and has been waiting to find her lifetime home. Cleo is 5 years old, spayed, up to date on shots, litter trained and just plain purrfect. If you know Calico's, you know that they can be a little sassy and very, very cuddly. Like her royal namesake Cleopatra, Cleo loves to be worshiped and adored and has no problem dismissing you when she's had enough. If you are looking for a kitty with good looks and tons of personality, look no further than our Cleo. She is amazing!

The AWSOM Animal Shelter is located at 3129 Godfrey Ridge Drive, Stroudsburg, PA 18360. Adoptions hours are 11AM to 4PM, 7 days a week. Volunteer opportunities are always available. Stop in or call 570-421-DOGS for more information.

The AWSOM Animal Wellness Center is open Monday thru Friday for all your basic veterinary needs. Check out our low-cost veterinary services, including spay and neutering, vaccinations, dental care and more. Call 570-424-1060 for more information or to make an appointment.
