Calling All Family Members of Foiano di Val Fortore, Italy

A delegation of Mayor Donato Iampietro and Vice-Mayor Giuseppe Ruggiero from Foiano di Val Fortore, Italy will be visiting the Lehigh Valley to meet with descendants of Foiano. Foiano di Val Fortore is a community in the Province of Benevento in the Italian region of Campania. The sister city of Foiano, Italy is Bethlehem, PA. They are particularly interested in hearing about the advancement of families in the Slate Belt who originated from this region of Italy. If you have photos of family members who are descendants of Foiano, please feel free to bring them with you for this event.

Therefore if you believe you have family members from the Foiano region and are interested in meeting with this delegation, Roseto Mayor Joseph Angelini has organized a reception on Sunday, November 19th from 3:00pm-5:00pm at the Columbia Fire Company in Roseto, PA (columbiafireco.org).

1885 Club Accepting Nominations

The Bangor Area High School Alumni Association is looking for nominations for induction into the 2018 "1885 Club Hall of Fame." In 1998, the members of the Bangor Area High School Alumni Association began to search for a way to honor graduates who have distinguished themselves through public service, scholarship, and recognition in their chosen fields of work. Discussions naturally led to creating a Hall of Fame for such individuals. Concerned about possible confusion with the Athletic Hall of Fame, however, the committee began to seek ways to create a different type of recognition with its own unique distinction. From this collaboration, "The 1885 Club" was born. Named in honor of the first year in which a class of students graduated from Bangor High School, this exclusive club honors distinguished alumni and holds these individuals as outstanding examples for others to follow. Through the creation of "The 1885 Club" the Alumni Association underscores and upholds the fact that graduates of Bangor Area High School have been making tremendous contributions to mankind for more than 130 years. We reserve a special category for educators and administrators who have served the Bangor Area School District over its long history.

To nominate someone for either of these awards, please go to the Bangor Area School District web site, bangorslaters.com, click on the Alumni icon (under Quick Links) and then click on the 1885 Club. There you will find a printable form. The form must be filled out completely for your nominee to be considered. Mail the completed form to the address shown or forward it to Carole J. Hontz at Bangor Area Middle School, 401 Five Points Richmond Road, Bangor, PA 18013-5267. Nominations can also be e-mailed to hontzc@bangorsd.org

The Human Target

By Robert Martin

He sleeps, he awakens, he rises up
Someone's hiding and waiting for him
Always looking over his shoulder
For he is the prey, the targeted one

Carefree days of yesterday are gone
Tomorrow may come, he'll never see
Constant vigilance, constant uncertainty
Precious is the day he sees the end
by Robert L. Martin

The soldier's day of anticipated suppositions
Psyching out the enemy and becoming the hunter
A game of intimidation commences at dawn
On this battlefield, this all out war
It takes all he's got to live through the day
God be with him on this day forth

The Real Estate Guys

Who represents you in a real estate transaction?

Whether you are Selling or Buying a home when you hire a real estate agent it is important to know who they represent.

Before you list your property for sale or enter into an agreement to buy a property, your Realtor will provide you with a "Consumer Notice". This is not a formal contract but an explanation of services designed to enable you to understand the business relationship that you will have with your agent.

As a Sellers Agent...the licensee and his company work exclusively for the Seller and must work in the Sellers best interest. All confidential information relayed by the Seller must be kept confidential.

A Buyer's Agent...does the opposite. He will work exclusively for the Buyer. Even though his fee is paid by the Seller. He will act in the Buyer's best interest.

Dual Agency...The licensee works for both the Seller and the Buyer. A Dual Agent must not take any action that is adverse or detrimental to either party. A licensee must have written consent from both parties before acting as a Dual Agent.

A Transaction licensee...provides real estate services without having any agency relationship with either party.

Another type of agency is the Designated Agent. This is too complicated to explain within the confines of this column. Feel free to stop out if you would like this explained.

In addition to Real Estate related representation, it is always prudent to have an Attorney, knowledgeable in real estate, to represent your legal interests.

FOLIC ACID VS. FOLATE

By Jackie Talero-Rueda,
The Crunchy Mom

Let's begin with a little history lesson on Folic Acid. In the United States, mandatory fortification of enriched cereal grain products with Folic Acid was authorized in 1996 and fully implemented in 1998. According to the FDA, The U.S. program adds 140 µg of Folic Acid per 100 g of enriched cereal grain product and has been estimated to provide 100–200 µg of Folic Acid per day to women of childbearing age. The relationship between apparent Folate deficiency and NTD (neural tube defect) occurrence was learned sometime after 1965 (ncbi.gov). NTDs occur when the neural tube fails to close early in embryonic development, resulting in damage to the exposed underlying neural tissue. Spina bifida is one of these defects. These birth defects can result in significant morbidity and mortality depending on the location and severity of the lesion. After a number of studies suggested that Folic Acid might reduce the risk of NTDs. This is why most doctors recommend up to 800mcg of Folic Acid supplementation to pregnant women. Did you know that Folic Acid is a synthetic B vitamin? That means that your body cannot readily use it and needs to convert it to Folate. Folate is bioavailable and not synthetic. It is what is found naturally in foods and can even be used in supplements. "Unlike natural Folates (which are directly metabolized by the small intestines), Folic Acid requires the assistance of a specific enzyme named 'dihydroFolate reductase', which is relatively rare in the body. Subsequently, when people (particularly women of child bearing age) consume large amounts of Folic Acid through vitamins and other fortified foods, the body cannot break it down and elevated levels of un-metabolized Folic Acid ultimately enters the blood stream" – draxe.com. Those of us with genetic mutations like MTHFR (which I will write about in another issue) cannot metabolize Folic Acid and taking it can cause further issues. So here we are consuming Folic Acid in fortified breads and in vitamins while our body is not using it and at the same time becoming Folate deficient. Folate deficiency can lead to poor immune function, chronic low energy and chronic fatigue syndrome, digestion issues, developmental problems during pregnancy and infancy, anemia, canker sores and swollen tongue, mood disorders and irritability, pale skin, and premature hair graying (which can also be a b12 deficiency). It's hard to believe that Folic Acid could be bad but for many it is. That is why if it's important to consume foods with naturally occurring Folate. Also buy multivitamins that have "Folate" and NOT "folic acid." Or even better if they have "5-mthf" or "methyl-Folate" because you know that your body will be able to use it and not have to struggle to convert it or get rid of it. Read the label! Foods high in Folate are spinach, beef liver, black eyed peas, asparagus, broccoli, brussel sprouts, kidney beans, romaine lettuce, avocados, and oranges.

Enjoy! Jackie

Slate Belt Animal Advocacy Group/Bangor Pup Park Posse Launches Shoe Collection

Drive to Raise money for Dog Park and New Shelter

Shoe donations will also support micro-enterprises in developing nations and reduce what goes into landfills

Slate Belt Animal Advocacy Group/Bangor Pup Park Posse is conducting a shoe collection drive through November 15th, 2017 to raise funds for a dog park and animal shelter. Slate Belt Animal Advocacy Group/Bangor Pup Park Posse will earn funds based on the number of pairs collected as Funds2Orgs will purchase all of the donated goods. Those dollars will benefit establishment of a dog park and animal shelter. Anyone can help by donating gently worn, used or new.

They will be assisted by the Girl Scouts in this fundraiser. Please contact Kerri Miller at 610 390 3910 for drop off/pick up instructions.

All donated shoes will then be redistributed throughout the Funds2Orgs network of microenterprise partners in developing nations. Funds2Orgs helps impoverished people start, maintain and grow businesses in countries such as Haiti, Honduras and other nations in Central America and Africa. Proceeds from the shoe sales are used to feed, clothe and house their families. One budding entrepreneur in Haiti even earned enough to send her son to law school. By donating shoes to the Slate Belt Animal Advocacy Group/Bangor Pup Park Posse, the shoes will be given a second chance and make a difference in people's lives.

Meet the Author
Featuring Joe DeFranco

The Friends of the Bangor Public Library will hold their Fall Meet the Author on Saturday, November 11th, 2017 at 10:00am at the Trinity Lutheran Church, 404 Broadway, Bangor, Pa.

Featured author will be local businessman Joe DeFranco. Mr. DeFranco will present his book: Growing Up in the Butcher Shop. Mr. DeFranco has always enjoyed telling stories to friends, reading articles about Italy, food magazines and cookbooks, along with being surrounded by his grandparents who had the greatest influence on him. All of this has inspired him to write vignettes for the Blue Valley Times, Slate Belt Magazine: The Belt and Beyond, and subsequently publishing his own book. Mr. DeFranco strived to keep the old customs alive so that the younger generation will have an idea as to his way of life growing up in the sixties, in a butcher shop and also for the older generations to reminisce days gone by. Tickets for the event can be purchased at the Bangor Library, 39 North Main Street, Bangor, PA. All proceeds benefit the Bangor Library. For additional information contact: Karen Brewer at 484-894-5661.

The Painters

By Robert Martin

Mother Nature, van Gogh, and Henri Matisse,
Painters who gave their all to a masterpiece,
They shed their tears for their pride and joy,
Bound themselves to the work they employ.

Mother Nature with her vibrant red and yellow,
Paints the leaves and grasses down below,
The alchemy of the tired and worn out greens,
Of little visual value into breathtaking dreams.

From the cool nights, as the dew from her brow,
Covers the grass, from her sworn avowal,
Give proof that her autumn's work is done,
As her colors glisten in the eyes of the sun.
An ode to all the painters who ever were before.

Monroe County Historical Association Holiday Luncheon

The Monroe County Historical Association will host the annual Holiday Luncheon at the Stroud Mansion fundraiser on Friday, December 15th and Saturday, December 16th. There are two seatings each day. The Early Lunch seating will be held at 11:00 a.m. and guests may dine until 12:30 p.m. and the Late Lunch seating will be held at 1:00 pm and guests may dine until 2:30 pm.

The Holiday Luncheon will be held on the second floor of the 1795 Stroud Mansion, 900 Main Street, Stroudsburg. Please note this event will take place in the second floor meeting room of a historic structure, which is not handicap accessible. The Stroud Mansion will be decorated for the holidays and guests attending the luncheon are welcome to tour the museum.

The luncheon will be a hot buffet-style meal catered by Dave Cook of The Cook's Corner Restaurant, Henryville, Pa. Tickets must be purchased at the Stroud Mansion, 900 Main Street in downtown Stroudsburg. Please get your tickets early; seating is extremely limited for this popular event.
