Slate Belt Residents Wowed by Earth Day Presentations

The Slate Belt community flocked to the Grand Central Landfill Environmental Education Center on Sunday for Waste Management's annual Earth Day Festival. More than 200 guests enjoyed presentations by Bear Mountain Butterflies and P.T. Reptiles. The event proved to be a sustainable success as children of all ages held snakes, frogs, turtles and lizards.

The celebration began with the recognition of Eagle Scout Justin Anthony of Troop 33 in Wind Gap by Grand Central District Manager Ron Myer and Community Relations Manager Adrienne Fors. Pennsylvania Rep. Marcia Hahn and Senator Scavello's Chief of Staff Taylor Munoz also congratulated Anthony for his hard work.

Mr. Anthony reconstructed a bird blind at the center and built a fire pit for all scout troops to utilize for camp outs at the property. He also created an information breezeway for visitors to record what birds and animals they view while strolling the trails at the center.

"Justin has demonstrated a strong ability to take on leadership and proved that by coordinating three projects that resulted in his Eagle status," commented Myer.

There were plenty of children's activities, including a recycle game that quizzed children about reused products, coloring creations and craft projects hosted by the Pen Argyl High School Green Echo Committee and Honor Students.

The Plainfield Township Lion's Club, Friends of Minsi Lake and the Northampton County Junior Conservation School were in attendance and introduced guests to their organizations and work.

Several scout troops participated in the day's events and even sold waffles and ice cream on the gorgeous sunny day. Little Creek BBQ sold pulled pork and chicken which rounded out the day with delicious treats.

"Today we celebrated Earth Day with our coworkers, our friends and our community. It was a day to reflect on nature and enjoy each other's company. We are thankful for the generous environmental education support from our partners and look forward to providing more programs for the Slate Belt youth," Mrs. Fors said.

The Real Estate Guys Home Inspections

From a Buyer's perspective...a professional home inspection should be construed as a key to ensuring your home purchase is a sound investment.

The key to a home inspection is the Home Inspector! That sounds trite. IT IS NOT ! It seems like forever that we have heard "anyone with a pick-up truck and a ladder could be a home inspector" Let me tell you...they don't need a truck anymore. So...like anything else...whether it be Inspectors Real Estate Agents, or any other professional service provider...there is a difference in expertise. It is our experience that there are very qualified inspectors available. The opposite is also true.

Do Your homework. * Ask friends, associates, etc. for references. * Interview the home inspector over the phone. *Ask about their experience. * Can they schedule an inspection convenient to your needs? * Obtain a clear knowledge of the format of their report and what their report will encompass. * Ask about insurance and any guarantees offered. * Review available inspections. Do you need a Wood Infestation inspection? How do you feel about a Radon test? If your home has a well and/or septic system what tests and procedures should you expect? Home Inspections are priced according to what testing you are hiring the inspector to perform...and of course prices vary in general.

Attend the inspection. Bring a list of questions and concerns and ask the inspector to address them. Follow the lead of the inspector. Each has their own methodology they follow to insure a thorough report. Make sure to ask all of your questions before you leave the property. After the Inspection you will be provided with a written report. Review this with the inspector and Realtor. Be aware...EVERY inspection will uncover some flaws in a property. It is our experience that most are not serious. Your Realtor will discuss these with you and advise you as to whether any item might need further evaluation by a professional in a specific field. You should expect that there will be items that you may want to address...you are not buying a new home. On the other hand, if a significant item is found to be deficient, you and your Realtor can address it with the Seller of the property armed with a professional opinion from the Inspection company.

30th Annual Farm Animal Frolic at Quiet Valley Living Historical Farm on May 19 & 20 and May 26 & 27

Quiet Valley's 30th annual Farm Animal Frolic is May 19 & 20 and May 26 & 27, Saturdays 10 am to 4 pm, Sundays noon to 4 pm. To folks in the 21st century springtime means warmer weather, flowers blooming and the return of robins. It's time to pack away snow shovels and think about getting the lawn furniture out. In the early 1800s it meant fresh greens became available, a real treat after a bland winter diet. The kitchen garden was planted with such things as peas, onions, beets and carrots. Chickens started laying eggs again and it was also when the animals on the homestead had their babies. At Farm Animal Frolic we celebrate the renewal of life that comes with the season of Spring.

Meet the baby farm animals up close and personal. See kid goats and lambs frolicking about. If you've ever wonder where the saying "two shakes of a lamb's tail" came from you can see the reason for yourself. Chicks will be peeping away and some will be hatching in incubators so visitors can watch them crack out of their shells. There will be a new calf for the children to meet and guests of all ages will laugh at the ducklings as they play in the water.

All the mommies of the babies will be on hand as well, keeping a close watch on their young, so folks will get to meet them, too, and learn something about their role on the farm. Our Clydesdale draft horses, Gunther and Wilhelm, will take you on a wagon ride to the ice harvest pond and back. In the lower part of the barn make sure to say "Howdy" to Janie, our mule, who doesn't get to pull the wagon and sometimes feels left out. That's where you will also find the piglets, always a lively bunch.

In addition to the farm animals there are plenty of other fun activities. Twice a day there is a special children's show where youngsters can enjoy puppet shows or storytelling. There are opportunities to play old fashion games, jump in the hay or try the Fish Pond. Our focus area for 2018 is the "Pig Pen" where folks can learn some pig lore, play a game and make a craft.

Sheep shearing will take place on Saturday May 19th throughout the day. Kathy Uhler, from the Pocono Wildlife Rehabilitation Center, will present a show on local wildlife on Saturday May 26th at 11:30 and 1:30. The school marm will offer presentations in the One Room Schoolhouse on both Sundays. The outdoor brick bake oven will be in operation during all four days of the event making homemade bread, hot pretzels and cookies.

There is nothing more lovable than baby animals, and adults, as well as children will get a kick out of a visit to Farm Animal Frolic. This is a wonderful opportunity to learn about farms, farm animals and to spend a day in the beautiful outdoors.

Pony Rides and Horse-drawn Wagon Rides are an additional charge and are weather permitting. Refreshments are available. No Smoking or Pets. Frolic is held Rain or Shine. The schedule and prices are subject to change.

All funds raised go to support the mission of the non-profit farm museum.

Save for a rainy year.

Put More You into Your Wedding Day

(Family Features) A wedding day is filled with symbolic tradition, from varied religious customs to the never-ending circle reflected in the rings and the types of flowers accentuating the celebration. Even with all the traditional rituals to consider, nearly every bride and groom can find ways to give their special day some unique touches that reflect their personality and love.

Music sets the mood for every wedding, and it's an easy place to put your own spin on the celebration. Whether you forgo the traditional bridal march entirely or simply look for an arrangement that gives an updated twist to the classic version, let guests know this isn't your average wedding by setting the festivities against a soundtrack that lets your true character shine.

The wedding party is intended to be a collection of those nearest and dearest to the bride and groom, who help ensure the day goes off without a hitch and who lead fellow revelers in celebrating the start of the new couple's life together. That being said, there's no reason this group must be limited to women on her side and guys on his, or even that it's limited to humans - a beloved pooch can make for an adorable ring-bearer, after all.

Photography is an essential element of your big day, but think beyond the images you'll capture throughout the wedding and reception. Photos lend a personal touch, no matter what your color scheme or theme. Integrate photos of the two of you at various stages of life, together as a couple and with loved ones (perhaps even some you're honoring in memoriam). You can display these at a table with the guest book, as part of the table centerpieces, or even on the gift table. Or take things digital and load all your images into a slide show set to music.

Make favors meaningful. Forgo more common items like bubbles and chocolate, and instead send a little of yourself home with your guests. Maybe it's a memento from a place with special meaning to you both, or a bottle opener shaped like a bicycle to represent the way you met. Just think about the moments and things that define you as a couple and do some searching online. You'll probably be surprised by how quickly the options pile up.

Serve up a menu that shows guests more about your life together. Your loved ones can order basic beef or chicken anywhere. Instead, give them a glimpse into you. Make your main course the same food you enjoyed on your first date or during another monumental moment in your courtship. Or plan the entire menu around a region that you hold close to your heart.

Weddings are filled with traditions, but that doesn't mean you can't put your own touches on the day for a special event filled with memories that are uniquely your own. Find more advice for life's special moments at elivingtoday.com.

- 1 bell pepper, diced
- 1 zucchini, julienned

ADOPT US: MAX-A-MILLION & MADRE

MAX-A-MILLION is a typical go-go Siberian Husky mixed with a side of sweet. He was surrendered due to no fault of his own, and poor baby is still trying to find his place in the world. Max loves to hike and be active, and is seeking an attentive husky family that understands the quirks of his breed. No cats or kids for Max, please. He was just recently neutered so his comfort level with dogs is still a question mark. A meet and greet with any dog in your home is an absolute must. Max is just 1 year old, neutered, up to date on vaccinations and so ready to change his address, for good. Come meet Max today!

MADRE is a classy kitty with a stellar personality. She adores everyone—kids, other cats, even dogs! The only thing she doesn't like is being stuck in the shelter when she could be comfy cozy in her very own home. That's where you come in. Madre is 2 years old, spayed, fully vaccinated and even microchipped. Come meet sweet Madre, today!

The AWSOM Animal Shelter is located at 3129 Godfrey Ridge Drive, Stroudsburg, PA 18360. Adoptions hours are 11AM to 4PM, 7 days a week. Volunteer opportunities are always available. Stop in or call 570-421-DOGS for more information.

The AWSOM Animal Wellness Center is open Monday thru Friday for all your basic veterinary needs. Check out our low-cost veterinary services, including spay and neutering, vaccinations, dental care and more. Call 570-424-1060 for more information or to make an appointment.

Mrs. Wisdom

by Robert L. Martin

An ode to you and what you are,
 To what you've done and what you do,
 To your commitment to wisdom's way,
 To your compliance to wisdom's laws,
 To your ability to see what they are,
 To the inner eye that's placed in your heart,
 To your affection toward all things,
 To your facilities to see the unseen,
 To your willingness to walk upon God's path,
 To your commitment to your offspring,
 To the sacrifices you make for their welfare,
 To your tears for their afflictions,
 To your courage to let them go in time,
 And to your selfless dedication.

You are what God's plan is meant to be,
 A fulfillment of his furthest dream,
 Of letting nature's instinct influence you,
 For letting it in to guide you,
 For holding on to it, you, a pillar of tenacity,
 A mother that deserves recognition,
 A mother that lets wisdom be her guide.
 Happy Mother's Day, Mrs. Wisdom.

The Slate Belt Heat Recovery Center team will conduct another Info Expo May 3 from 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p.m. at the Weona Park Recreation Hall in Pen Argyl. The event will give neighbors another opportunity to meet the project team and ask questions. Public input sessions have resulted in important project revisions, including the relocation of the center, the elimination of the discharge of treated water into a local stream, and the pursuit of state environmental permits before local zoning approvals. Please be sure to ask your questions.
