Moving may be traumatic for kids!

Sometimes it is necessary to sell your home. It may be a matter of choice, a death, divorce, job transfer, or any number of reasons. When this occurs you should familiarize your kids with the new neighborhood and community. Give them the opportunity to visit their new home and school before moving day. You might want to have a farewell party to give them an opportunity to say goodbye to their friends and possibly make arrangements to keep in touch.

When moving time comes it is a good idea to pack your children's favorite things first. Less important items can be packed later.

Upon arrival at your new home you might want to consider getting the kids rooms organized first. This will help maintain regular schedules for bedtimes and they will have their favorite things with them. It will provide a safe haven and also help handle the stress of leaving the secure feeling of their home, friends, and school.

Of course the kitchen will need to be made functional asap, for everyone's benefit. Once the children (of all ages) are comfortable you will have plenty of time to get the rest of the home in order.

Moving can be exciting for families as they look forward to new places, friends, neighbors, and in some cases to be closer to relatives. It is important to introduce the children to their new school and have them make new friends, one or two at a time. Younger children can keep busy by making scrapbooks of their new home, friend's pictures, and memories. Be sure to afford them the opportunity, if possible, to stay in touch with their friends from your old home.

The children will depend on you to guide them in the transition to their new environment. Help them assimilate by having them join church youth groups, scouts, athletic organizations, and get involved with school and community activities. After a short period of adjustment children will be part of their changed environment. By taking positive action to help them it will result in everyone being in a better place.

Hello, Belt and Beyond Readers....
Where is summer going? Seems like the days are just flying by! For those of you who are new readers or need a refresher, my name is Alyssa McGarry, and I currently help my mom Joyce, operate our restaurant, Cafe on Broadway, in Wind Gap. The best part of summer is all the family and fun things to do and share together, and a nice treat makes it even better! So, I am going to share my fresh lemon crumb cake recipe. It's one of those multipurpose desserts that makes a nice breakfast on the run or a little afternoon treat. The fresh lemon zest and juices make the cake so moist and it's the perfect sweetness. You can choose the pan size that you prefer, a 9 x 9 square pan or a 9" springform pan. Enjoy! This will keep a week at room temperature if it lasts that long in your household!

FRESH LEMON CRUMB CAKE RECIPE

Ingredients:

CRUMBLETOPPING:

- 4 tablespoons unsalted butter melted
- 3/4 cup flour
- 1/3 cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
- zest of 1 lemon

Combine all ingredients in a small bowl and stir until lumps form.

LEMON CAKE:

- 2 cups unbleached all-purpose flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder

- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 3/4 cup granulated sugar

Carnival

By Robert L. Martin

The sound of fun permeates the air,
The sound of the calliope at the fair,
That familiar sound and nothing other,
Than the call to the carousel to incur.

What is a carnival without that sound,
That familiar music whirling all around?
With children laughing and riding atop
Bright colored horses until they drop.

And suitors out on their very first date,
Showing off their skills at the shooting arcade,
Then riding high up on the Ferris wheel,
On top of the world that doesn't seem real.
Summertime, summertime, summertime,
Come to the carnival and get in line.

Senator Mario Scavello to Hold Annual Senior Expo

State Senator Mario Scavello will host his Annual Senior Expo on Monday, July 17 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Pocono Mountain Swiftwater Elementary Center (135 Academic Drive, Swiftwater, PA 18370). The Expo is co-sponsored and will be attended by State Representatives Rosemary Brown and Jack Rader. Admission is free to the public.

Over 70 exhibitors from non-profit and government agencies will provide information on the services they offer benefiting seniors. Door prizes, health screenings, educational seminars, and refreshments will be provided.

“Each year the Senior Expo provides a wealth of information to help our area seniors manage their finances, take control of their health, and protect against potential scams targeting seniors,” said Senator Scavello. “Our seniors form the backbone of our communities and this is a valuable opportunity to receive information on new topics and services available to enable them to live independently. I encourage all seniors to attend and learn what services best benefit you.”

Additional outdoor exhibitors will include the Hughes Library Book Mobile and the PA Department of Military and Veterans Affairs Mobile Van. A representative from the North Central Highway Safety Network will also be on hand to check vehicles for issues with mirrors, seats, and other factors that might impede driving safety.

For more information, please contact Senator Mario Scavello's Monroe County district office at 570-620-4326.

State Senator Mario Scavello represents the 40th Senatorial District, which includes portions of Monroe and Northampton Counties. ADOPT US - TACO & ARTHUR

TACO is a sweet kitty Momma who is now an empty nester. All her little kittens have found forever homes, and Taco is left lonely and sad. Just a baby herself, Taco is now spayed and ready for her own happily ever after. This little lady does great with other cats, spending her days climbing, jumping and playing in the free-roaming cat room with her many kitty friends. Beautiful Taco is just one year old, spayed, vaccinated and ready to fill your home with her spicy sweetness. Come meet Taco today!

ARTHUR is a gentle giant with a happy-go-lucky personality. He loves people of all ages: kids, adults, everyone. While he enjoys walks, what Arthur really wants to do is lounge on the couch and share a snack while watching your favorite show. This big lug is loyal, lovable and just a tiny bit lazy. Arthur has no desire to share your love, so no other pets in the home, please. Big boy is 8 years young, neutered, up to date on vaccinations, microchipped and looking for a comfy spot to call home. Come meet Arthur today!

The AWSOM Animal Shelter is located at 3129 Godfrey Ridge Drive, Stroudsburg, PA 18360. Adoptions hours are 11AM to 4PM, 7 days a week. Volunteer opportunities are always available. Stop in or call 570-421-DOGS for more information.

SUMMER BUMMERS

By Jackie Talero-Rueda, The Crunchy Mom

Summer is in full swing and we are enjoying being outside in the heat. Picnics, camping, the beach, and fun in the sun is much of what we think about when it's summer. We don't tend to think of the bad that comes with summer until it actually happens. No matter how much we try to prevent summer aches and pains and annoyances, they happen. Sunburn, bug bites, jellyfish stings, insect bites and stings, food poisoning and hangovers. Here are a couple natural remedies to help.

Sunburn- Sometimes we just forget to reapply sunscreen or apply it at all. It has happened to all of us. Using real aloe gel from an aloe leaf is one of the best ways to help soothe the skin. Luckily aloe plants are being sold everywhere as well as the individual leaf at grocery stores. Keep one on hand for occasions like this. Cut a small section of the aloe leaf and take the green skin off. You will be left with just the slimy inner fillet. Use this inner fillet and spread it all over sunburned skin. Discard at each use. Apply a couple times a day for relief. You'll be amazed at how quickly this helps sunburned skinned. Another good thing to have on hand is milk of magnesia. Use it on sunburned skin and leave overnight. It will leave skin white but works great.

Jellyfish stings- Thankfully this is a very rare thing to happen but it's good to be aware of what to do. Instead of rinsing your sting with water, which can reactivate the stinging cells, use vinegar after you remove the tentacles. The acetic acid lessens the pain by deactivating the release of venom from the jellyfish tentacles.

Spider bites- make an activated charcoal poultice for spider bites and stings from mosquitos, fire ants, bees, wasps and yellow jackets. Mix 1/2 teaspoon of activated charcoal with 1 Tablespoon water. Apply to a bandage and place on affected area. Leave on for 2-4 hours or until dry. Change out as often as you need to. The poultice will reduce swelling and inflammation from the bites and stings.

Food poisoning and hangovers-these are two very different ailments but I placed them together because both can be alleviated with activated charcoal. Activated charcoal absorbs toxins and help alleviate some of the symptoms of food poisoning. Take 2-3 capsules 3 to 4 times a day when having food poisoning. Take 2 capsules after drinking alcohol or 2-3 capsules for hangovers. Remember to drink extra water and if possible electrolyte drink. Always consult your doctor especially when there is food or alcohol poisoning.

Enjoy!
Jackie
