On Tuesday December 7, Bangor Lodge #1106 of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks presented a check to the Mission of Love Food Pantry. The donation of $3500 was presented by Past Exalted Ruler Todd McLain to Pastor Frank and the many volunteers of the Food Pantry. Christmas: A Celebration of Love

By Kathleen McFall

Christmas is a time filled with magic, excitement and wonderful moments of joy.

Houses dazzle with festive lights, Christmas trees are decorated and presents are wrapped. Christmas music seems to be playing wherever we go, and families prepare to come together for a holiday celebration.

It is not just what we do that makes the holiday special. It is what we are to each other as we share the laughter of old traditions and the joy in new ones.

Christmas is a time for celebration. We share in the wonder of children as they eagerly anticipate the spirit of the season. They are filled with the happiness that the holidays bring.

Christmas truly is one of the most wonderful, joyous times of the year. However, sometimes we get lost in the season and forget the reason we celebrate it.

Despite all the hustle and bustle that comes with the holiday, Christmas is a time of spiritual reflection on the important foundations of Christian faith.

Christmas is one of the most important Christian holidays of the year. While at times, the season may seem to be about presents, food and celebrations, it really is about love.

"For God so loved the world that He gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life." John 3:16

In John 4:14, the Bible states: "And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world."

Christmas, for Christians, is the celebration of the miraculous birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ, who was born in humble circumstances. His birth changed everything.

One of the names given to Jesus is Immanuel which means "God with us". Knowing God is with us is our greatest gift. It is a name that reflects His presence and love.

Life can be fraught with troubles. For some, Christmas brings about challenges. When we are faced with tough circumstances during the holiday season, life may seem to be anything but peaceful. We may struggle with feelings of loneliness during the holiday season.

We can choose to dwell on our circumstances or seek spiritual solutions to help us navigate our situation, knowing that it is never the end of the story.

No matter what our circumstance may be, remember that the only way we can find true peace is through Christ.

God is at work in our lives. As Christians, we believe that through faith and the power of prayer, obstacles can be overcome and our lives can be transformed through

His mercy, grace and love.

Jesus came down from Heaven to save us. When we recognize the higher power in our lives, we acknowledge His direction and influence on our journey.

Peace, the perfect peace of God, is already ours. God isn't just with us. He is within us. He is here ready to come into our lives with His goodness. We need to embrace His protection and His joy.

Christmas is about peace, giving and love—God's love for us and our love for Him and for each other.

Peace can encompass our thoughts and feelings and transform our worries and troubles.

Our spiritual roots are planted in God, helping us weather life's storms.

Alexander Maclaren, a nineteenth century Scottish minister stated: "Peace comes not from absence of trouble, but the presence of God."

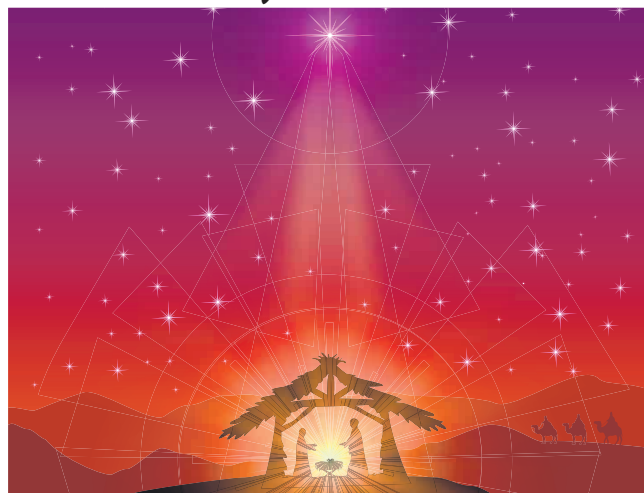

Jesus came into this world to offer the hope of redemption. Those who know Christ have this promise, "And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus." Philippians 4:7.

Christmas is here. Enjoy all the trappings of Christmas, but take the time to reflect on the true meaning of Christmas: Christ came with a plan for our redemption, He gave us the greatest gift that He chose out of love - the gift of salvation.

An important message we need to share this year is one of love, joy, and hope. We can enjoy the wonder and awe of the season, celebrate the majesty of Jesus' birth and reflect on the miracle of Christmas.

May God bless you and your family this year. Let us make this holiday a meaningful and joyous one, where we come together to celebrate the miracle of Christmas with the people we love.

Merry Christmas!!

May your holiday be blessed with the love and warmth of family and friends.

Merry Christmas

Tis the Season...for Holiday Scams

The Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities and the Pennsylvania State Police (PSP) are reminding consumers to be vigilant against fraud and scams associated with holiday shopping. Five common scams to watch out for this season include:

1. Hacked Account Scam – A scammer may use technology to make it seem like your financial institution is calling you to inform you that your card or account has been compromised. They may have details like the last four numbers of your card or listing of recent purchases. This is an attempt to establish credibility and create an urgency to prevent additional fraudulent activity, while seeking additional sensitive financial information. Your financial institution will not call you unsolicited and ask for details such as your Social Security number, account or credit card numbers, or password. Always contact your financial institution directly using the phone number from your statement, bank card or their website to verify any calls from the institution.
2. Unbelievable Price on Hard-to-Find Items – Everyone enjoys a bargain, but if the item you're looking to purchase is showing for significantly less than compared to every major retailer, it is likely fraudulent. The scammer will try to sell you a plausible, but ultimately fictional, reason for the price difference. Fraudsters will tell you there are multiple people interested, but they'll let you buy it if you send payment immediately. Once you send the money, you'll receive bogus shipping information or never hear from them.
3. Bank Deposit Holiday Hustles – Having your checking or savings account information used for depositing mystery shopper checks or other deposits whose funds you don't know the source of can lead to financial loss and difficulty reestablishing banking services. When you endorse or sign a check, you are vouching for the legitimacy of those funds being available. A scam artist may send you a check for an amount to buy certain items to send somewhere, allowing you to keep a portion for yourself. If that check or funds are fraudulent, you will be liable for the entire balance.
4. Copypat Websites – Identity theft can occur despite taking precautions. Consumers can help reduce the chance of having their personal or financial information stolen by practicing safe online shopping. Malicious emails can appear to be from legitimate retail stores. Do not click on these links. Instead, bookmark the URL for your favorite stores to ensure you are accessing the appropriate site. If purchasing items online, be sure to monitor your accounts after for fraudulent or unauthorized charges.
5. Gift Cards – Gift cards can be a versatile and practical holiday gift but remember that no government agency will ever ask you to pay a fine, fee or penalty with a gift card. If you receive a call telling you to pay a debt or some other cost via gift card, that is a red flag of a scam. Hang up immediately. Once a scammer has the codes and pins from a gift card, it is extremely difficult to recover any funds. Pennsylvanians who have fallen victim to a scam can contact their financial institution and local police department through non-emergency channels. Additionally, victims can file a complaint with the FBI Internet Crime Complaint Center by visiting <https://www.ic3.gov/>. In addition, the free "See Something, Send Something" smartphone application enables people to report suspicious activity. Consumers are encouraged to capture photographs, screenshot and other information and send directly to the PSP. Tips can also be sent to tips@pa.gov

Supersonic Santa

By Robert L. Martin

Whoosh! Goes the man in the sleigh,
Ducking meteors and the Milky Way.
With so many places to go, he goes,
Santa on the fly up over the snows.

Speed is of the essence up an' back;
Over two billion children to be exact.
At lightning speed he circles the world,
Ignoring speed limits to give it a whirl.
He stops at every house and every place,
Bringing presents at a supersonic pace.
Santa is a man with the pedal to the metal.
